Privacy Policy

Kingdom Authority Media, LLC

Effective Date: October 21, 2026

Kingdom Authority Media, LLC ("we," "us," or "our") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information entrusted to us.

This Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, used, disclosed, and protected when you visit KingdomAuthority.org, subscribe to our newsletter, interact with our podcast or film content, or purchase products through our website.

1. Information We Collect

Depending on how you interact with our website and which features are available, we may collect the following information.

Information you provide voluntarily:

- Your name and email address.
- Billing and shipping information associated with purchases.
- Contact information supplied through forms.
- Newsletter subscription preferences.
- Messages, questions, or other communications you send us.
- Account information, if customer accounts are offered.

Information collected automatically:

Our website and integrated services may collect technical information such as your IP address, browser type, device characteristics, pages visited, referral source, and interactions with website content.

Where video or audio players provide analytics, we may receive information about media plays, viewing activity, or listening engagement.

Payment information:

Payments may be processed through third-party payment providers. Those providers process payment information under their own privacy and security practices. We generally receive transaction information needed to complete orders, issue refunds, and maintain business records.

2. How We Use Information

We may use collected information to:

- Deliver newsletters and subscriber communications.
- Announce new episodes of Kingdom Authority with James Alford.
- Promote film releases, special events, and merchandise.
- Process purchases, payments, and refunds.
- Provide customer support.
- Understand website traffic and content engagement.
- Improve our films, podcasts, products, and website.
- Detect fraud, prevent misuse, and protect website security.
- Comply with applicable laws and business recordkeeping requirements.

3. Newsletter Subscriptions

By voluntarily subscribing to our newsletter, you request email updates from Kingdom Authority Media.

These communications may include podcast announcements, film releases, inspirational content, ministry-related news, and product promotions.

You may unsubscribe from marketing communications at any time using the unsubscribe link provided in our emails or by contacting us directly.

Unsubscribing from marketing emails does not necessarily prevent essential order confirmations or customer service communications.

4. Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to support website functionality, remember preferences, measure traffic, and understand content engagement.

Some third-party services embedded in our website may also use cookies or similar technologies under their own policies.

Where legally required, we will provide appropriate cookie notices, consent options, and controls for nonessential tracking.

You may also manage cookies through your browser settings, although disabling certain cookies may affect website functionality.

5. Sharing of Information

We may disclose information to service providers when reasonably necessary to operate our website and provide requested services.

Such providers may include:

- Website hosting and maintenance services.
- Payment processors and ecommerce platforms.
- Email newsletter providers.
- Shipping and fulfillment companies.
- Analytics and security providers.
- Podcast hosting and video streaming services.

We may also disclose information where required by law, to protect legitimate legal interests, or in connection with a business transfer.

We do not rent or sell newsletter mailing lists to third-party marketers.

If we introduce advertising or data-sharing practices classified as a "sale" or "sharing" under applicable privacy laws, we will provide any required disclosures and choices.

6. Third-Party Services

Our website may contain embedded content or links to video platforms, podcast distribution services, social media websites, and online retailers.

When you interact with those services, the third parties may collect and process information in accordance with their own privacy policies.

We encourage users to review the policies of those services.

7. Data Security

We use or arrange for reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards appropriate to the information being processed.

However, no method of electronic storage or internet transmission is guaranteed to be completely secure.

8. Data Retention

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes described in this policy, including maintaining subscriptions, completing transactions, providing support, resolving disputes, and satisfying legal obligations.

When information is no longer reasonably needed, we will delete it, anonymize it, or securely retain it only where permitted or required by law.

9. Your Privacy Choices and Rights

Depending on your location and applicable law, you may have rights to:

- Request access to personal information held about you.
- Request correction of inaccurate information.
- Request deletion of certain personal information.
- Withdraw consent where processing relies on consent.
- Opt out of certain marketing or data-sharing activities.

You may submit privacy requests to [PRIVACY CONTACT EMAIL].

We may need to verify your identity before fulfilling certain requests. We will respond in accordance with applicable law.

10. Children's Privacy

KingdomAuthority.org is not directed to children under 13, and we do not knowingly solicit personal information from children under 13.

If we learn that we have collected such information without legally required authorization, we will take appropriate steps to delete it or otherwise comply with applicable law.

Parents or guardians who believe a child has submitted personal information may contact us.

11. International Visitors

Our website may be accessible outside the United States.

Depending on the visitor's location and the services offered, personal information may be processed in the United States or other locations where our authorized service providers operate.

Where applicable privacy laws provide additional rights or require specific processing safeguards, we will comply with those requirements.

12. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy when our technology, services, business practices, or legal requirements change.

Updated versions will be posted on this page with a revised effective date. We will provide additional notice where legally required.
